Poe-Dunk – A Matchbox Entertainment

New York International Fringe Festival 2011 Preview

We asked an artist from each show in the New York International Fringe Festival to answer a few questions about their production for our readers. Below are the responses from Edgar Allan Poe, the Writer for this show.

1. What does your show sound like?

3. People who like your show would also like which famous movie or tv show?

PLAN 9 FROM OUTER SPACE (1959)! Playlab NYC produced an adaptation of one of my shows at the FringeNYC a couple years back, PROFESSOR RALPH'S LOSS OF BREATH, so I know a little about their approach. POE-DUNK – A MATCHBOX ENTERTAINMENT is a homemade show created with affection. Like an Ed Wood production, the Playlab NYC team wants the audience to see the zipper on the back of the monster and the fishing wire holding up the paper plate UFO.

4. My show is the only one in 2011 FringeNYC that...

allows audiences to experience nearly forty of my works in an hour! That's one of my poems, essays, or short stories, every ninety seconds! And that should be a lot of fun.

5. Groucho, Chico, Harpo, or Zeppo?

Groucho, simply because I am grouchy most or all of the time. Like Groucho, I am a master of wit who enjoys taking the air out of stuffy people. And if you have ever read one of my stories you know - they are verbose!
